SENATOR LUEDTKE: Well they can find --

SENATOR NORE: You're locking them out.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: Anybody can get the rules by going to Supreme Court.

SENATOR NORE: Going to a lawyer.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: No they can go right over here to the Supreme Court --

SENATOR NORE: They have to drive, if they live in Western Nebraska, they drive down to Lincoln to find out, to get the rules.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: Where do they get the rules now?

SENATOR NORE: I think you are locking them out.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: Where do they get the rules now?

SENATOR NORE: Pardon.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: They have to buy law books --

SENATOR NORE: Aren't they in the statutes?

SENATOR LUEDTKE: Yeah.

SENATOR NORE: You're taking them out?

SENATOR LUEDTKE: You can get them right over here at the Supreme Court.

SENATOR NORE: But why not leave them in the statutes where they can get them handily and have them in their office.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: They can have these in the office.

SENATOR NORE: Pardon.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: Well this is what happens --

SENATOR NORE: If you aren't lawyers you won't have them.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: I've answered your question.

PRESIDENT: Alright, any further discussion, now of the Luedtke amendment? The question is shall the Luedtke amendment be adopted, all those in favor please say aye, those opposed say no, so ordered, the amendments are adopted. Back to you Senator Luedtke.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: Now, Mr. President I'm just going to say this, this is what happens when you try ever to get rid of any laws, from the books of the State of Nebraska, and first when they tried to put them on the argument was we don't need them, because the lawyers can follow their own rules, but they weren't following them, so they said alright we will pass a law and we will make them do it, they now are doing it, and we are saying okay now let's get rid of them, and that gets rid of quite a bunch of laws let me tell you. Some 40 sections of the statutes, and the bar association has studied this matter and felt that the lawyers had been doing it, title standards people who deal in this field feel it is time that this be done, that's why the law was introduced, the committee went along, there was no opposition to it.

PRESIDENT: Alright, Senator Nore, do you have a question?
